

BLADES

CONSUMABLES

Choosing the right blade is essential for achieving high cutting quality, high productivity and long service life. This catalogue presents a complete range of blades selected to meet the different requirements of profile machining. Dimensions, technical features and machine compatibility are given for each product, making selection simple, quick and well-informed.

